Fez is a visual and pungent feast for the senses, with a huge, well-preserved medieval city that's the mother of all medinas.

Getting lost in Fes is half the fun, but you'll have our guide with you to help you get the lay of the land, through this vibrant labyrinth of a city, alive with the many craftsmen, markets, ceramics and beautiful mosques. Look out for the Medersa Bou Inania, one of the city's coolest buildings, recently restored and now open to visitors. Check out the exquisite carvings and tile work at the Medersa el Attarine near the spice and perfume market. You'll also visit the famous tannery and its dye pits and a ceramic factory where you can see potters working in the traditional way.

Fes is a shopping heaven for those wanting to pick up a souvenir (or three).
